

Being a

W.E.S.T

By Janice Ogbe and

Welcome

We should welcome people and we can easily do this by;

a) Saying words clearly to the person you are talking to.

b) Saying 'welcome' to new people that come.

c) Greet them as they enter your home.

keep going

Encourage

We must encourage people to do their best, we can do this by;

a) Cheering others on.

b) Encouraging people to do their best.

Inspirational video-
you can do this.

c) TELL PEOPLE THAT THEY

ARE DOING GREAT!!!

I CAN DO THIS

Saying Sorry

Being a W.E.S.T person includes saying sorry. Some of the ways you could say sorry are;

a) Simply just apologising if you did something wrong.

b) Helping them fix the thing that was destroyed or ruined.

a) Saying SORRY!!

Saying Thank You

THANK YOU

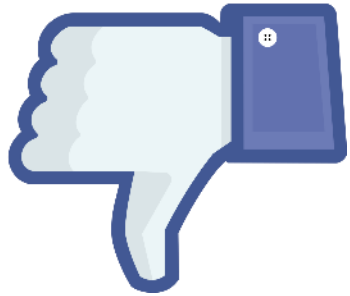

Saying thank you can help make someone's day. You can do this by;

a) Saying thank you when you get something for them.

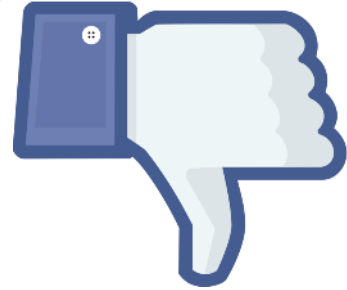

b) Inviting them for a thank you meal.

c) Telling them you are going to do the same for them.

Don't be an

E.A.S.T

Excluding

Don't exclude people but if you still do,
this what could happen;

a) Ignoring people when they ask to play.

b) Saying 'NO' when people ask to play.

c) EXCLUDING PEOPLE CONSTANTLY!!

Argumentative

Being an argumentative person means that you;

a) Moan and groan.

b) Complains 'this is boring!'

c) Is negative mentally and physically.

Sulking

Another thing that an E.A.S.T person does is sulking, they;

a) Get angry about little things.

b) Always wants things to go their way.

c) Cries when they don't get a lolly.

Talking Back

The 'T' in E.A.S.T means, someone that doesn't listen and talks back.

a) "No I'm not cleaning my room!!

b) If an adult tells you to do something and you say you don't want to do it, in an angry or whining voice, that means you are talking back.

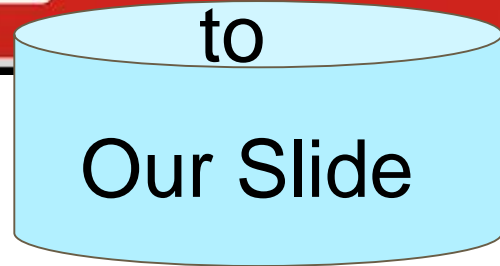

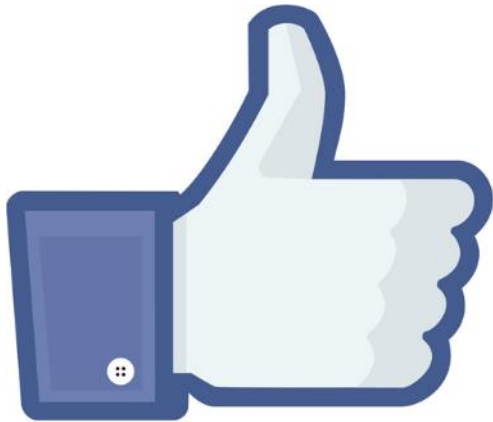

c) Mum says to go wash the dishes, but you say NO!

THE END

Now it's your choice be a WESTy or an EASTY
